

Rich Potocek Elected Vice President of NCMA Woodlawn Chapter

NCMA Leadership Role Highlights Rich Potocek's Dedication to Federal Acquisition Excellence and APV's Mission-Driven Innovation

COLUMBIA, MD, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- APV, a mission-driven leader in healthcare transformation through innovative IT solutions, is proud to announce that Rich Potocek, Director of Health Growth & Partnership, has been elected Vice President of the National Contract Management Association \(NCMA\) Woodlawn Chapter Board—his term begins July 1. Rich's election underscores his commitment to bridging government and industry to drive excellence in federal acquisition. This approach aligns with APV's focus on delivering impactful, technology-enabled solutions that improve healthcare outcomes for the American public.

Rich began his involvement with NCMA in 2017 while at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) in the Office of Acquisition and Grants Management (OAGM). He has since served in key roles, including Chair of the Website and Communications Committee and, most recently, Chapter Secretary in 2023.

As Vice President, Rich will continue championing professional development and community engagement in government contracting. His focus on mission-first innovation and service delivery aligns closely with APV's values of transparency, impact, and public trust.

"We're incredibly proud of Rich and his continued leadership within NCMA," said Nandita Gududuri, President of APV. "This role is a testament to his dedication to public service and the contracting community."

Please join us in congratulating Rich on this well-earned achievement.
