The decision to broaden periodontal treatment options comes in response to increased patient demand for more advanced gum disease management and prevention. With periodontal disease affecting nearly half of adults over 30, this initiative addresses a growing healthcare need in the region.

• Periodontal therapy at Beyond Dental Care includes a range of diagnostic and treatment services:

- Comprehensive periodontal assessments
- Non-surgical scaling and root planing
- Ongoing periodontal maintenance
- Patient education and preventive care strategies

These services are supported by modern dental technology, enabling earlier detection and more effective treatment of gum-related conditions. This aligns with the practice's mission of delivering concierge-style dentistry in a spa-like setting.

"We've seen a rise in patients seeking specialized periodontal care, especially among adults and seniors in our community," said Dr. Dariene Lazore, owner of Beyond Dental Care. "By enhancing our periodontal services, we're better positioned to meet those needs with care that's both thorough and personalized."

Periodontal disease, commonly known as gum disease, is linked to several systemic health issues, including heart disease, diabetes, and stroke. By expanding their periodontal therapy services, Beyond Dental Care reinforces its role in promoting whole-body health through comprehensive dental care.
