The new transitional designs showcase the modern style and functionality that today's homebuyers seek. Buyers can choose from an impressive range of medium and oversized homesites featuring scenic water and nature views.

Ryan Homes at Lost Tree Preserve offers a variety of homes from the mid $400s and sizes, ranging from 1,833 to 2,850 square feet, and features main-level owner's suites in both one- and two-story designs. Many of the homes feature spa-like four-piece en-suite bathrooms, enhancing the overall living experience. Residents will appreciate the grandeur of the towering front doors and foyers, as well as clean-lined trim, and modern, sophisticated lighting.

In addition, each home offers sleek modern fixtures, high-quality finishes, and appliances, including a wine refrigerator. These features create stunning kitchen and entertainment areas that seamlessly transition to spacious covered lanais. Many homes also feature wall-to-wall sliding glass doors that allow for abundant natural sunlight, promoting an incredible indoor-outdoor living experience.
