Designs Landscape & Construction, a recognized name in high-end outdoor design, has expanded its custom entryway remodeling services to meet growing demand in Morgan Hill and the surrounding Silicon Valley region. As a trusted entryway contractor with over 30 years of experience, the firm continues to offer tailored, detail-oriented solutions that elevate residential curb appeal and functionality.

Homeowners are increasingly seeking entryways that make a strong first impression while also being durable and sustainable”

Parker Tamura

This service expansion reflects Tamura Designs' commitment to responding to evolving homeowner needs, particularly for high-quality, custom-designed entryways that integrate seamlessly with broader landscape and architectural styles.

- Key service enhancements include:
- Personalized design consultations with in-depth site

analysis

- Custom masonry, stonework, and hardscape features
- Integration of sustainable materials and practices
- Construction drawings and clear budget proposals

Founded and led by Parker Tamura, the company is known for blending elegant craftsmanship with environmentally conscious design. The firm's entryway remodeling projects are carefully crafted to complement each client's home, lifestyle, and vision.

“Homeowners are increasingly seeking entryways that make a strong first impression while also being durable and sustainable,” said Parker Tamura, owner of Tamura Designs. “We’re expanding these services in Morgan Hill to meet that growing interest and ensure clients have access to the high-caliber design support they need.”

The move comes amid a broader trend in the region where residential property owners are prioritizing exterior upgrades that enhance long-term value. According to the National Association of Realtors, outdoor remodeling projects like entryway renovations yield high satisfaction rates and favorable returns on investment.

Morgan Hill, known for its blend of rural charm and suburban convenience, continues to attract discerning homeowners interested in refined, functional outdoor spaces. Tamura Designs' expanded offerings align with this trend, bringing both aesthetic appeal and practical benefits to new and existing properties.
