

Celebrating 25 Years of Heartfelt Healing: Cardiologist Dr. Ziad Elghoul Earns 2025 ThreeBestRated® Award

CHANDLER, AZ, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- A quarter-century ago, Dr. Ziad Elghoul opened Cedars Heart Clinic with a simple goal in mind: to treat each patient with the utmost compassionate care. Today, Cedars Heart Clinic stands synonymous with sincere, compassionate care and excellence in cardiac care.

Within the industry, Dr. Elghoul is known for his contributions, through several roles throughout his career. Just as the saying goes, sincere efforts and a dedicated heart never go unnoticed, in a recent announcement, ThreeBestRated® has proudly recognized Dr. Elghoul as one of Chandler's top-performing cardiologists for 2025. This accolade reaffirms what hundreds of his patients have long known — 'His work is driven by both heart and excellence.'

Dr. Ziad Elghoul

More Than Medicine—It's a Promise of Care

As a board-certified specialist in nuclear cardiology, cardiovascular disease, and interventional cardiology, Dr. Elghoul specializes in general cardiology, coronary interventions, venous ablations, peripheral artery disease, and percutaneous abdominal aortic aneurysm repairs. He has been practicing since 2001.

For over two decades, Dr. Elghoul has treated every patient as if they were family. Whether it is a complex cardiac procedure or a routine heart checkup, he listens, explains, and ensures his patients feel understood and supported, which is often a rare trait today. He has always put his heart and soul into his practice.

Beyond his practice, he has held various positions and made contributions to his industry in many ways. Dr. Elghoul is serving on the Physician's Clinical Council at Chandler Regional Hospital and has served as the Director of the Cath Lab at Dignity Health Hospital. His publications in several peer-reviewed journals and participation in groundbreaking research studies, including the ABSORB trial and the current PIONEER 3 trial, demonstrate his commitment to advancing cardiovascular medicine for future generations. His dedication earned him several accolades including the Marreel Excellence in Service Award and the Excellence Award from the 7 Principles of Behavior initiative.

Dr. Elghoul founded his clinic, Cedars Heart Clinic in 2006 to provide his patients with a sanctuary of healing and hope.
