

EXANTE Rolls out Latest Platform Enhancements

LIMASSOL, CYPRUS, July 2, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- As part of a long-term vision to build a scalable, resilient, and high-performance proprietary platform, global prime broker EXANTE is pleased to announce new functionality enhancements, delivering faster performance, greater automation, and more transparency for professional traders.

These upgrades are part of a company-wide transformation led by Chief Technology Officer Richard Forss, who joined EXANTE in 2024 to scale the platform for the next decade of growth. With a background in global hedge funds and fintechs, Richard is focused on building a platform that's not only robust and scalable, but also intuitive and innovative.

We're investing in resilience, performance, and intelligent design, all with the goal of delivering the most powerful and usable platform in the market”

Latest Enhancements Include:

-Trading Infrastructure Performance Gains:

Ultra-fast subscriptions via FIX bridge: subscribe to up to 100,000 instruments in 10 seconds.

Pre-order margin checks for market orders now include slippage coefficient support, reducing order rejections and improving client experience.

- TickDB Viewer in RUN: A new interface gives users clearer visibility into historical instrument data, helping traders analyse price behavior with greater precision.

- Improved Data Validation Logic: New logic for handling unchanged balances and missing transaction files further strengthens accurate processing, supporting ongoing reliability and reinforcing trust in the system.

These regular improvements reflect EXANTE's broader commitment to innovation through client-informed development, intelligent automation, and next-gen infrastructure.

This release is just one milestone in a larger roadmap, which includes a redesigned options trading module, AI-powered engineering and user experiences, and enterprise-grade analytics tools for institutional clients.

"We're investing in resilience, performance, and intelligent design, all with the goal of delivering the most powerful and usable platform in the market," says Richard Forss, CTO of EXANTE.
