DPDP Act: A Landmark Shift in India's Privacy Landscape

The DPDP Act represents India's first comprehensive law dedicated solely to protecting personal data. With heavy penalties, strict reporting timelines, and mandatory safeguards, the Act places legal and moral responsibility on businesses to prevent unauthorized data access and misuse. At the heart of these obligations lies the need to secure digital infrastructure, applications, APIs, and databases — the exact areas where CloudIBN's VA & PT Services operate. By combining Vulnerability Assessment and Penetration Testing (VA&PT) with regulatory intelligence, CloudIBN offers Indian enterprises a clear path to compliance.

Understanding VA & PT Services for DPDP Act Compliance

The DPDP Act mandates "reasonable security safeguards" for personal data, but what does this mean in practice?

VA & PT Services form the technical backbone of these safeguards by:

1. Identifying Vulnerabilities – in databases, web apps, APIs, cloud environments, and endpoints that store or process personal data.
2. Simulating Real-World Attacks – to test how a malicious actor could exploit these vulnerabilities.
3. Mapping Security Gaps to Compliance Risks – providing clear remediation strategies tied to specific DPDP provisions.

CloudIBN's VA & PT Audit Services include both internal and external assessments, ensuring businesses have a 360-degree view of their data exposure and regulatory posture.

Key Provisions of the DPDP Act Addressed by VA & PT – How CloudIBN Helps Reasonable Security Safeguards

- ☐ Identifies and remediates technical vulnerabilities before exploitation.

Data Breach Notification within 72 Hours

- ☐ Simulates real-world breach scenarios and tests incident response readiness.

Data Minimization

- ☐ Assesses unnecessary data exposure across networks, apps, and systems.

Privacy-by-Design Implementation

- ☐ Validates secure coding, development practices, and cloud configurations.

Cross-Border Data Transfer Protection

- ☐ Evaluates the security of data transmission channels and storage endpoints.

What Makes CloudIBN the Right Compliance Partner

CloudIBN blends cybersecurity best practices with deep knowledge of Indian legal frameworks, giving clients a unique advantage in achieving DPDP Act compliance.
