Often referred to as the "Dolce Vita Visa," the Elective Residency Visa offers a pathway for financially independent individuals—such as retirees, entrepreneurs, and remote professionals—to live full-time in Italy without engaging in local employment.

"This visa is a gateway to the Italian lifestyle many dream of. We're seeing more Americans, Canadians, and global citizens taking advantage of it to live in Europe on their own terms," said a senior attorney at Global Immigration Partners. Global Immigration Partners

Why the Elective Residency Visa is Gaining Popularity:

- Long-term residence in Italy without the need for local employment
- Ideal for retirees, remote workers, and high-net-worth individuals
- Access to Italy's healthcare system and visa-free travel within the EU
- A potential path to permanent residency and citizenship

Global Immigration Partners offers end-to-end support for clients pursuing the Elective
