

Oaxaca to Belize: Birding Expeditions Unveils Wild Tours at Global Birdfair 2025

Meet local experts and plan your next birding adventure through Oaxaca, Guatemala & Belize at Global Birdfair 2025, Stand No. 28, Marquee NIGHTINGALE.

ANTIGUA GUATEMALA, GUATEMALA, July 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Birding Expeditions, a leading operator of birdwatching and nature tours across Central America and Mexico, will exhibit at Global Birdfair 2025, held 11–13 July at the Lyndon Top Caravan Site by Rutland Water.

Birding Expeditions – Expert-led birding tours across Guatemala, Mexico & Belize, connecting travelers with rare species and rich ecosystems.

Known for expertly guided, conservation-focused birding adventures, Birding Expeditions will spotlight three premier destinations in the Neotropics:

Oaxaca, Mexico – One of Mexico's richest birding regions, Oaxaca offers a dazzling diversity of habitats and endemic species, from high-elevation cloud forests to dry interior valleys. Highlights include two of the region's most sought-after species: the Rose-bellied Bunting and the Orange-breasted Bunting. Their signature Oaxaca Birding Tour offers unparalleled access to these species and many more.

We invite birders of all levels to discover the magic of the Mayan World and join us in making conservation part of every journey.”
