Arab America*

40 Under 40 is a celebration of accomplished young Arab Americans. The program showcases Arab American professionals in a wide range of fields, including education, law, public service, politics, nonprofit work, business, entrepreneurship, engineering, medicine, the arts, entertainment, writing, and media. These young professionals have outstanding achievements both in the workplace and in their communities.

“The 2025 class of 40 Under 40 reflects the incredible diversity and dynamism of Arab Americans across the nation. These leaders come from every corner of our community—innovators, advocates, artists, and entrepreneurs—who each make a powerful mark in their respective fields. Their collective achievements inspire unity, pride, and a renewed commitment to lifting the next generation,” said Warren David, co-founder of the Arab America Foundation and president of Arab America.

All awardees are under the age of 40, excel in their respective industries, and are actively engaged in promoting their heritage and culture to empower their communities and make a positive difference. The competition is open annually to all professionals who live and/or work in the United States and are of Arab descent.
