Industry Overview: Canada's Windows and Doors Market

According to IBISWorld projections, the Canadian windows and doors market is expected to reach $15.3 billion by 2030, fuelled by rising demand for energy-efficient home renovations and ongoing repair work.

Supporting this trend, data from Statista shows consistent industry growth, driven by a strong real estate market and a growing preference for modern, energy-efficient, and aesthetically appealing products. Homeowners are increasingly opting for windows and doors crafted from advanced materials that offer both performance and visual appeal.

As expectations for long-term durability and home efficiency continue to rise, more Canadians are turning to experienced, professional installers who can provide end-to-end solutions tailored to modern living.
