

Hundreds Attend 2025 Alzheimer's Expo

The successful third edition of the Expo reveals an increased demand for information and resources among people affected by a growing disease.

WACO, TX, UNITED STATES, July 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 2025 McLennan County Alzheimer's Expo, held last June 24 at First Woodway Baptist Church, brought together hundreds of attendees in its third year of offering vital education, resources, and support to those affected by Alzheimer's disease in Central Texas.

This year's Expo featured 40 by-invitation-only exhibitors; seven breakout sessions on a variety of relevant topics; four one-on-one consultation stations where individuals could talk privately to a nurse, a social worker, an attorney, or a money manager; two interactive sessions including a DementiaLive simulation experience that allowed participants to get a sense of what dementia

“

It feels good to know that we are helping to address the increasing thirst for information, resources, and connections from a growing number of people affected by the disease in our community.”

Eduardo Berdegúe

may feel like; a panel discussion, which this year focused on the caregiver experience; a prayer room; and countless of connection opportunities. Over twenty professionals, including panelists, presenters, counselors, and support specialists and a dedicated team of a dozen volunteers helped make the day run smoothly, reflecting the community-wide commitment to addressing the challenges of Alzheimer's disease.

The event was presented by Divine Home Care Services, Baylor Scott & White Hillcrest Internal Medicine and Senior Health Center, Area Agency on Aging, Alzheimer's

Association, and Woodway Baptist Church, who together have built a platform to empower and inform caregivers, families, and professionals.

“Very excited and proud of the amazing team that works every year to put this Expo together,” said Eduardo Berdegúe, founder and co-organizer of the Alzheimer's Expo and principal of

Divine Home Care Services. "It feels good to know that we are helping to address the increasing thirst for information, resources, and connections from a growing number of people affected by the disease in our community."

The organizers wish to extend heartfelt thanks to this year's sponsors for their generous support: Extraco Banks, Divine Senior Solutions, Rainey & Rainey Attorneys at Law, CareScout, The Blake at Waco, and Encompass Healthcare.

The McLennan County Alzheimer's Expo continues to grow each year as a trusted annual resource and gathering point for families, professionals, and advocates working to navigate the journey of dementia and memory loss. The next edition of the McLennan County Alzheimer's Expo has been scheduled for Tuesday, June 23, 2026.

Eduardo Berdegú
Divine Home Care Services
+1 254-294-3896
info@divinehomecareservices.com
Visit us on social media:
Facebook

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/827800312>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.