☑Koostik Hookah to Headline Ohio's Only Cannabis-Friendly Floating Music Festival

In just ten days, Toke and Float 2025 will welcome guests from across the region to Kim Tam Park in Uniontown, Ohio for a day-long outdoor celebration blending live music, cannabis culture, and floating fun on the natural spring-fed waters of Melanie Lake.

The event takes place on Saturday, July 12, and features an eclectic lineup of bands including a headline performance from ☑Koostik Hookah, plus sets from Land of Panda, The Groovy Roots, Dirty Psychic, Sumthin Wonky, and others. Gates open at 11:00 AM for VIP and 12:00 PM for General Admission.

Toke and Float is designed as a 21+ cannabis-friendly event focused on responsible enjoyment and community connection. Attendees can float on the lake, dance to live music, visit cannabis lifestyle vendors, and enjoy food trucks, art installations, and shaded chill zones throughout the park.

With last year's festival reaching capacity, organizers are encouraging early arrivals and ticket reservations to ensure entry.
