

Valley Alarm's Annual 'Trunk-or-Treat' Returns This Halloween

San Fernando community invited to safe, family-friendly celebration on October 31

SAN FERNANDO, CA, UNITED STATES, September 15, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Valley Alarm, a San Fernando-based provider of remote video surveillance in Los Angeles, is proud to host its annual "Trunk-or-Treat" event on Friday, October 31, 2025, at the company's headquarters on Pico Street.

This free event welcomes families from across the San Fernando Valley for an evening of decorated trunks, community partners, and Halloween fun.

Now a local tradition, Trunk-or-Treat features classic cars, candy stations, and festive costumes—all in a safe, walkable space for children and parents to enjoy Halloween night together.

We love seeing families enjoy Halloween in a safe and festive environment, right here in San Fernando.”

Ed Michel, Co-President Valley Alarm

Community organizations, such as Elks Lodge #1539 in San Fernando and the San Fernando Valley Car & Truck Club Council, will be on hand to distribute candy and celebrate with neighbors.

In past years, the event has even drawn appearances from Congresswoman Luz Rivas and actor Danny Trejo, highlighting its growing impact and community support.

“Trunk-or-Treat is our way of giving back,” said Ed Michel, Co-President at Valley Alarm. “We love seeing families enjoy Halloween in a safe and festive environment, right here in San Fernando.”
