

B'nai Torah Congregation Invites Community to Join Summer Volunteer Initiatives

*Meaningful Mitzvah Opportunities
Include Reading to Adults with Disabilities, Preparing Meals for the Food Insecure, and More*

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, July
3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

B'nai Torah Congregation is calling on the South Florida community to roll up their sleeves and take part in a variety of hands-on volunteer opportunities this summer through its signature Meryl and Ron Gallatin Tzedakah, Learning & Chesed (TLC) Program.

B'nai Torah Congregation

We've created a series of opportunities this summer for people of all ages to engage in acts of kindness, whether it's your first mitzvah or one of many.”

Summer Faerman, Director of the TLC Program

From preparing sandwiches to sharing the joy of reading, the TLC Program offers a wide array of mitzvah (good deed) projects designed to make a real difference in the lives of others — locally and beyond.

“We've created a series of opportunities this summer for people of all ages to engage in acts of kindness,” said Summer Faerman, Director of the TLC Program. “Whether it's your first mitzvah or one of many, there's something here for everyone who wants to make an impact.”

About the TLC Program

The Meryl and Ron Gallatin Tzedakah, Learning & Chesed (TLC) Program is B'nai Torah's hub for meaningful volunteer work and social action. Launched in 2012 and led by Summer Faerman, the program provides congregants of all ages opportunities to live out Jewish values through action. TLC projects support a wide range of needs, including hunger relief, homelessness, education, elder care, and support for individuals with disabilities.
