International Airport has captured the prestigious Airport Food & Beverage Offer of the Year title at the 2025 Airport Food & Beverage (FAB) + Hospitality Awards.

The FABulous 2025 winners pose for a commemorative photo at the end of the awards ceremony. Other photos available on application.

The Airport Lounge of the Year was awarded to 080 International Lounge at Kempegowda International Airport Bengaluru Terminal 2, operated by Bengaluru Airport Services.

The event, held in Barcelona and organised by leading industry media title The Moodie Davitt Report, celebrated excellence across the global travel food & beverage and lounge hospitality sectors.

The awards took place during a spectacular gala dinner hosted by Spanish airports group Aena, and attended by many leading global airports and F&B companies, at the Maritime Museum of Barcelona on 26 June.

The judges said Incheon International Airport is an “absolute powerhouse” in terms of its food & beverage offer. “The scale and diversity of the offer is incredible. It is a truly holistic F&B programme that has comprehensively addressed every possible aspect of a considered, extensive airport food and drinks strategy... with an unrelenting focus on quality and a strong sense of local culture.”

Of the 080 International Lounge in Bengaluru, the judges said, “Simply majestic. Simply wow. Alongside immaculate service, luxury design, a superb culinary showcase (and imaginative cocktail menu) and adroit use of tech, everything here screams vision, commitment, great execution, class, consumer-centricity and sense of place.”

Other notable winners included Le Café Cyril Lignac at Louis Vuitton in London Heathrow Airport Terminal 2, which claimed the Airport Food & Beverage Opening of the Year.

The Airport Food & Beverage Offer Best Representing Sense of Place was shared by 080 International Lounge (Lounge category) at Kempegowda International Airport Bengaluru Terminal 2, operated by Bengaluru Airport Services, and Central Tiffin Room (Restaurant category) at the same airport, operated by CTR VTP Hospitality.
