Don Mahmood, Executive Director of Voices of Muslims, added: "Three years ago, we embarked on a mission to ensure Muslim Americans receive the recognition they deserve for their countless contributions to Georgia and our nation. Georgia's continued commitment to celebrating Muslim American Heritage Month demonstrates that when we embrace our diversity, we all become stronger."

Celebrating Contributions Across Sectors

Muslim American Heritage Month recognizes contributions in healthcare, technology, arts and culture, education, business, and public service. Since 2023, the celebration has engaged thousands of residents, facilitated educational programs, and promoted interfaith dialogue across participating counties.

"As we mark our third year of Muslim American Heritage Month in Georgia, we reflect on the tremendous progress we've made in creating awareness and appreciation for the diverse contributions of Muslim Americans," said Dr. Nausheen Naveed, VoM Treasurer and Board Member.

Throughout July 2025, communities will host educational events, cultural celebrations, and interfaith gatherings to promote understanding and appreciation of Muslim American heritage.

About Voices of Muslims (VoM)

Voices of Muslims (VoM) is a Georgia-based advocacy organization dedicated to amplifying Muslim American voices and fostering inclusive communities. The organization has been instrumental in achieving recognition for Muslim American Heritage Month in Georgia.

This recognition provides Muslim children and families with a profound sense of pride and belonging while educating all Georgians about the rich tapestry of cultures that strengthen our communities."
