Florida's Financial Growth Creates Demand

Between April 1, 2020, and July 1, 2023, Florida experienced a net migration gain of 818,762 residents, according to data from the U.S. Census Bureau. Additional migration studies released in January by major moving companies also confirmed Florida's status as a top relocation destination.

"Sarana Advisors, Inc. is expanding into Weston to meet this demand for experienced, ethical financial guidance," stated a firm representative. "This office allows us to serve both new arrivals and long-time Florida residents with the same level of care and expertise that defines our brand."

With Florida continuing to draw residents from high-tax states like New York, New Jersey, and California, the need for competent, local financial advisors has never been greater. The new Weston location positions Saranac Advisors, Inc. to provide trusted insight to individuals transitioning their financial profiles to take advantage of Florida's favorable tax environment.

Offering Financial Clarity in Uncertain Times

Many Americans are unsure how to effectively plan for taxes, retirement, or long-term savings. According to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 40% of adults say they have difficulty managing their finances, especially in times of inflation or life transition.

“Saranac Advisors, Inc.’s goal is to eliminate uncertainty,” noted another team member. “Whether it’s navigating tax changes, launching a business, or planning for retirement, we equip clients with clear, actionable strategies.”

In an age when financial misinformation is widespread, the firm emphasizes the value of working with licensed professionals who provide fact-based, proactive planning. With years of combined experience and a growing presence in Florida, the Weston office reflects the company’s dedication to financial empowerment through education and service.

Services Offered at the Weston Office

The Weston office serves individuals, families, and business clients across Broward County and surrounding areas. Saranac Advisors, Inc. also plans to offer complimentary educational workshops throughout the year on timely financial topics. At the Weston branch, clients can expect access to the firm’s comprehensive suite of services, including:
