"We are thrilled to welcome Mathieu to Xeni's advisory board," said Sachin Narode, CEO of Xeni. "His unique experience at the intersection of airline distribution and travel payments will be invaluable as we scale our infrastructure layer for travel and empower partners to deliver seamless, branded booking experiences."

Montmessin's addition to the advisory board underscores Xeni's commitment to building a robust and innovative travel ecosystem. His insight will support Xeni's mission to democratize access to travel inventory and infrastructure for superapps, entrepreneurs, and organizations around the globe.

"I'm excited to join Xeni at such a dynamic stage of its growth," said Montmessin. "Xeni's approach to travel infrastructure is exactly what the industry needs—and I look forward to contributing to its success."

About Xeni
Xeni is a travel-tech platform empowering businesses to embed or fully integrate travel products rapidly—without building their own inventory, booking, or client management systems. Xeni's modern stack and API suite make it easy to scale fast—without the usual friction. Xeni's infrastructure is built on the Hedera network. Every booking made across the Xeni platform is tracked, stored and settled on the decentralized ledger.
