Dr. Kimes will kick off her campaign with a public rally and press conference on Tuesday, July 8th at 5 PM, near the Capitol Building in Atlanta. "This is a historic moment, and I extend a heartfelt invitation to all my constituents and supporters," stated Dr. Heavenly Kimes. "Join us, lend your energy, and together, let's demonstrate the impactful force of community power."

The highly anticipated kickoff event will be a vibrant rally. Dr. Kimes is ready to articulate her plans for crucial areas including:

- Healthcare that's affordable and accessible — including mental health and maternal care.
- Education that prepares our kids not just to graduate, but to thrive — teaching real-life skills like entrepreneurship, tech, and financial literacy.
- An economy that works for everyone — especially small business owners, working families, and Black entrepreneurs.
- Police reform rooted in accountability, safety, and justice — because she understands the deeply personal impact of these issues on families.

"I'm not a politician," Dr. Kimes asserts, "That's exactly why I'm the right one for the job. I don't owe any favors. I'm not part of a political machine. I'm not running for the status quo — I'm running to shake the table." She aims to replace the incumbent with a representative who is "visible, vocal, and active," a "power player" who will "work the seat."
