

CRYSTAL KAY ANNOUNCES FIRST-EVER NORTH AMERICAN HEADLINING TOUR

Crystal Kay celebrates 25 years with her first full North American tour, bringing her genre-defining J-pop and R&B sound to seven cities this August.

WASHINGTON D.C., DC, UNITED STATES, July 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global J-pop and R&B icon Crystal Kay is officially embarking on her first-ever full North American headlining tour this August with CK25 – The Tour: 25 Years in the Making, a six-city run celebrating a genre-defining career that has spanned a quarter century.

For over two decades, Crystal Kay has shaped the sound of Japanese pop and R&B. From her breakout hit “Koi ni Ochitara” to her contributions to anime classics (Fullmetal Alchemist, Nodame Cantabile, Pokémon: Giratina & the Sky Warrior) and her critically acclaimed albums, Crystal has built a lasting legacy as one of Japan’s most dynamic and influential artists. While she has performed select shows in the U.S. before, CK25 marks her first full-scale tour across the U.S. and Canada.

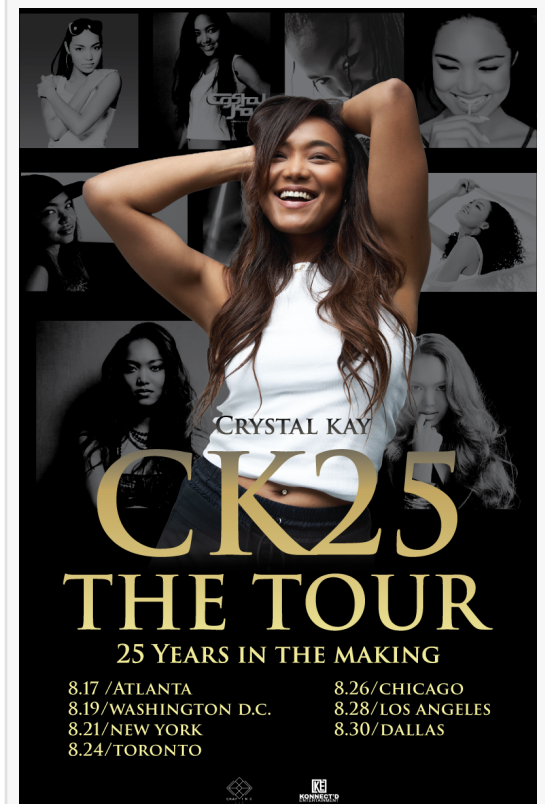

The tour kicks off August 17 in Atlanta, with additional stops in Washington, D.C, New York, Toronto, Chicago, Los Angeles, and Dallas, bringing her timeless sound and powerful stage presence to longtime fans and new listeners alike. The tour coincides with the release of her new All Time Best – 25th Anniversary album, offering a live experience that spans her catalog from debut to now.

Each stop will feature live performances of fan favorites, new moments, and a special look back at the moments that defined her career. VIP packages, exclusive tour merch, and limited meet-and-greet opportunities will be available.
