Sohail Gilani, Owner, Kitchen Guard of Chicago

Gilani brings both entrepreneurial spirit and community commitment to his new role as the owner of Kitchen Guard servicing Chicago Central, Chicago North, Schaumburg, Aurora and Joliet.

Guard will provide a full range of professional cleaning services, including commercial kitchen hood cleaning, grease removal, exhaust system maintenance, fire suppression system inspection, and NFPA-compliant fire safety solutions.

“Bringing a Kitchen Guard franchise to my hometown of Chicago is an exciting opportunity to protect Chicagoland and deliver a critical and highly regulated premium service to restaurants, schools, hotels, and other food-service facilities in the region,” said Gilani. “Our mission is simple: to protect businesses, staff, and their patrons by keeping their commercial kitchen clean, compliant, and safe from fire hazards.”

Kitchen Guard is known nationwide for upholding rigorous quality standards, environmentally friendly cleaning practices, and commitment to customer satisfaction. The Chicago franchise will uphold these values while providing tailored services for the unique needs of businesses throughout the area.

“Sohail’s leadership and business acumen as an information technology analyst and a nearly 20-year Subway franchisee makes him a tremendous addition to the Kitchen Guard family,” said John Conway, Director of Franchise Support at Kitchen Guard Home Office in Escondido, California, where the brand was founded in 2009. “We’re confident that under his direction, Kitchen Guard will set a new standard for excellence in kitchen safety and fire prevention.”

The new franchise is fully operational and accepting new clients across the Chicagoland area. Restaurant operators and owners as well as kitchen managers are encouraged to schedule a complimentary safety inspection to learn more about how Kitchen Guard can help keep their facilities safe and compliant.
