

Karger Joins NICE Knowledge Resources Framework to Provide Peer-Reviewed Medical Content to NHS Libraries

Karger Publishers' eBook and eJournal collections are now available for NHS Libraries to buy via the National Institute of Health and Care Excellent Framework

BASEL, SWITZERLAND, July 8, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In meeting the stringent criteria of NICE, Karger Publishers has demonstrated highest quality standards in their portfolio of peer-reviewed content, including 100 journals and 9,000 books.

The NICE Knowledge Resources Framework Agreement is a procurement system for healthcare organisations in the United Kingdom, which facilitates access to key medical publications to support clinical practice, learning and development. As a result, NHS Trust libraries will be able to purchase Karger's eBook Collection with access in perpetuity as well as annual subscriptions to Karger's eJournal Collection which comprises 57 hybrid journal titles.

Alison Hope, Regional Manager at Karger Publishers

“Making Karger's books and journals available via the NICE Framework will give libraries confidence that they're purchasing from a trusted supplier,” says Alison Hope, Regional Manager at Karger Publishers. “This development is an example of our continued commitment to supporting medical libraries and publishing relevant peer-reviewed electronic resources.”

As a new supplier to the NICE framework, Karger Publishers will offer its high level of service to NHS libraries in the United Kingdom, enabling them to access Karger's world-renowned eBook and eJournal portfolio.
