

Gregory J. Vincent Law LLC Launches Public Website, Expanding Access to Premier Legal Services

Gregory J. Vincent Law LLC, an Ohio civil rights, education, employment and NIL firm, expands services for clients across the state with first public website

COLUMBUS, OH, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gregory J. Vincent Law LLC, an Ohio civil rights, nonprofit, education, and employment law firm, today announced the launch of its public website GregoryJVincentLaw.com. The digital milestone marks an expansion in accessibility for the firm's legal services serving clients since 2018. The firm partnered with Postali, LLC to produce the site.

On behalf of our Assoc., I share our honest, unexaggerated gratitude for legal services provided. You brought reason, calm and confidence to the complicated task of restructuring our organization.”

Robert L. Gilbert, President, AXP

The law firm was founded and is led by Gregory J. Vincent (J.D., The Ohio State University Moritz School of Law; Ed.D., University of Pennsylvania), an award-winning former tenured professor, education and non-profit CEO, and trial and appellate litigator with over three decades of legal experience. During its seven-year history, Gregory Vincent Law has established itself as a trusted destination for civil rights, education law, employment law, nonprofit organization law, and Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) law.

"The launch of our website represents our commitment to making high-quality legal representation more accessible to Ohio executives, institutions, and fiduciaries who need experienced advocacy in today's complex legal landscape," said Gregory Vincent, J.D., Ed.D. "Our digital presence will allow us to better serve clients across the state, particularly in the areas of civil rights, nonprofit, education law, and NIL compliance."

Vincent added, "Legal work in Ohio has been a cornerstone of my career success and I want to ensure that I can continue serving the state."

Distinguished Leadership and Expertise

Dr. Vincent brings exceptional credentials combining legal practice, law teaching, and academic and non-profit leadership. As a former Ohio Assistant Attorney General, he successfully argued precedent-setting civil rights cases before the Ohio Supreme Court and secured over $1 million in settlements and judgments, including Little Forest Medical Center v. The Civil Rights Commission and State, ex Rel Natalina Food Co. v. Ohio Civil Rights Commission. These successes led to his promotion to Regional Director and then Director Legal and Regional Affairs for the Ohio Civil Rights Commission.

Dr. Vincent's experience also includes serving as former Vice President and W.K. Kellogg Professor at the University of Texas at Austin, where he managed a $50 million budget and 40 units, and as Professor of Educational Policy and Law and Executive Director at the University of Kentucky. Most recently, he served as President of Talladega College from 2022-2024, where he led enrollment of two of the most academically talented classes in school history and secured record donations, including two gifts of over $1 million each.
