National College Evaluation Camp (NCEC) comes to Kansas City with Top Football Talent

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2025
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Elite Talent Football Teams Up with OP Football Academy for Premier Exposure Event on Sun July 13

The National College Evaluation Camp (NCEC), one of the nation's top exposure platforms for youth and high school football athletes, is coming to Lee's Summit North High School on Sunday, July 13. Hosted by former NFL player Derrick Tatum, founder of Elite Talent Football Academy, www.elitetalentfootball.com and in partnership with OP Football Academy, this camp is a must-attend event for student-athletes who want to compete, get evaluated, and be seen by college programs.

NCEC offers verified testing in the 40-yard dash (laser-timed), broad jump, 20-yard shuttle, height and weight, and elite position-specific training. Over the years, the camp has helped launch the careers of hundreds of athletes who went on to earn college scholarships — and some who became stars at the college and professional levels.

“

The Camp Where Stars are Found!!”
Best football camp in the USA!

“This is where the journey starts for a lot of kids,” said Derrick Tatum. “NCEC is where raw talent gets noticed. We’re not waiting on rankings — we’re helping players earn them.”
