First (VFAF) National Ambassador Jen Charlton, host of The Jen Charlton Show on WFMD AM, is coordinating relief efforts from Maryland in support of Vet Force—the organization’s national volunteer program currently deployed in Texas delivering emergency supplies to flood victims.

When Americans hurt, our Veterans step up. That’s why VFAF Vet Force Volunteer Kimberly Taiko Moyers is on-site in Texas, coordinating aid efforts .”

The Maryland State Chapter of Veterans for America First is led by Lt. Col. Berney Flowers.

Charlton brings significant emergency management and public outreach experience to the mission. She previously served under the Hogan Administration as Director of Community Outreach at the Maryland Department of Human Services and later as Director of Communications at the Baltimore City Department of Social Services (BCDSS), where she worked closely with agency leadership across the state.

Fred Propheter, representing the Frederick County Conservative Club, is organizing the shipment of essential supplies to support VFAP's boots on the ground, led by Kimberly Taiko Moyers and her veteran-led team in Texas. In addition to coordinating Maryland shipments, Charlton is leveraging her nationwide media network to help direct needed supplies to Moyers' team for distribution.

As Moyers emphasized recently on The Jen Charlton Show, "We need supplies and volunteers, not money." VFAP does not engage in fundraising—Veterans for America First is a self-funded, all-volunteer grassroots organization. A brief fundraising window was facilitated through a local VFW from July 4–6 and has since been closed. The current priority remains securing and delivering emergency supplies.

Those with supplies to contribute can reach out via email at connect@VFAP.us. Jen Charlton and the VFAP team will coordinate logistics for getting your donations where they are needed most.

VFAP Vet Force was the first boots on the ground delivering essential flood relief in Texas.

Veterans for America First (VFAP) is a grassroots America First organization founded in 2015 (originally as Veterans for Trump). It supports conservative veterans and veterans' issues through political engagement, community outreach, and advocacy. Vet Force is VFAP's recently launched national volunteer program, officially inaugurated in January 2025.

Modeled on the campaign-style "Trump Force 47," Vet Force mobilizes veterans, law enforcement, and patriotic civilians into "boots-on-the-ground" volunteer teams. These teams engage in emergency relief, public safety advocacy, youth mentoring, voter education, disaster response, and support for MAGA-aligned campaigns. In Georgia, Vet Force is led by Devonta "Sully" Sullivan, a former police officer now serving as National Ambassador. Sullivan's team has restored a shelter at Park Avenue Baptist Church in Atlanta and recently organized a holiday blood drive in partnership with the American Red Cross—efforts aimed at addressing homelessness, healthcare shortages, and community revitalization.
