

Vistatec CMO Simon Hodgkins to Share AI Strategy at Unleash AI for Business Summit

DUBLIN, DUBLIN, IRELAND, July 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Tuesday, July 22, 2025, the Unleash AI for Business Summit will bring together founders, marketers, and operators from high-growth companies to share practical, proven AI strategies. The event runs from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM PST / 12:00 PM to 7:00 PM EST and will feature live interviews with leaders running businesses with revenues of seven, eight, and nine figures.

Simon Hodgkins, Vistatec's Chief Marketing Officer, is a featured speaker. With a session titled "Human Experts at the Core: Using AI to Scale Across Languages," Simon will share insights from decades of global marketing experience. He will discuss the realities of utilizing AI to scale global content operations in multilingual environments, while ensuring that human expertise remains central to the process.

A Practical Approach to AI in Business

Simon's session is designed for business leaders navigating the pressure to keep up with rapidly evolving AI developments. Real growth doesn't come from talking about AI; it comes from applying it effectively and securely in the right areas.

His talk will cover five key areas:

Focusing on What Matters, With AI Changing Every Week
The Real Business Growth Comes From Using AI, Not Just Talking About It
Keeping Humans at the Core While Scaling With AI

AI, Search, Privacy, and Data Security

How AI Helps You Manage Multilingual Content

Who Should Attend

This summit is ideal for executives, founders, CMOs, operations leaders, and consultants seeking to leverage AI to enhance content, communication, and business performance.

As Simon comments, "If you're trying to scale intelligently in a global market, you need to understand where AI helps, and where human expertise still matters most."
