"Fastport is proud to help with the launch of the New Orleans studio, where RadioNemo has featured nearly 200 guests in the first few weeks of their new format," said Brad Bentley, President of Fastport. "The entire RadioNemo team has always championed the trucking industry and the nation's veterans, and we're truly honored to see these voices heard in more places than ever."

This celebration coincides with the debut of RadioNemo's latest program, "We Should Write", joining its two flagship shows, Nemo Nation and Road Gang Radio. All shows will broadcast live via iHeart Radio, YouTube, Facebook, Audacy, and RadioNemo.com. Hosted by industry icons Dave Nemo, Jimmy Mac, and Lindsay Lawler, RadioNemo's team brings a unique blend of experience, humor, and authenticity to trucking radio. Their commitment to community and conversation continues to shape how drivers across the country connect, reflect, and stay informed.

Whether you're a sponsor, partner, listener, or friend, you're invited to be part of this unforgettable evening that celebrates the past, present, and future of trucking media. To RSVP, email weekends@radionemo.com.
