With roots in Virginia and a reputation for integrity, Blue Box Auction Gallery now supports clients at every stage from understanding an item's value to placing it in front of a global audience of bidders.

This service is ideal for estate attorneys, fiduciaries, collectors, as well as individuals navigating life's more complex transitions. Whether they are planning for the future, resolving a dispute, or settling an estate, clients receive clear and compliant documentation they can rely on.

Appraisal categories include:

- Estate Tax & Probate Appraisals: Compliant valuations to support estate settlement.
- Insurance Coverage & Claims: Appraisals for proper coverage or post-loss documentation.
- Equitable Distribution: Support for fair and informed property division
- Damage or Loss Claims: Documentation for claims and legal resolution
- Collateral or Financing Evaluations: Reports to support secured lending or asset-based funding.

All reports are prepared by qualified professionals who adhere to the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice with appraisals grounded in market research, comparable sales, and asset-specific analysis.

Specialized appraisal reports are ideal for those with one-of-a-kind items including fine art, jewelry, and antiques as well as for institutional collections. By adding appraisal services, Blue Box Auction Gallery reinforces its mission to be a full-service partner to their clients by offering clarity and confidence beyond the auction podium.
