Celebrates Philly's Women and Transfemme Artists with
One-Day Grassroots Event — Philadelphia, PA — July 19, 2025

The IRIS Music Festival, a one-day celebration of Philadelphia's vibrant creative community, will take place on Saturday, July 19 at Wonderland Fishtown, showcasing an all-local lineup of women and transfemme artists.

Born out of the monthly IRIS Music Showcase founded by Philly soul singer Taylor Kelly in January 2024, the festival builds on that community-driven momentum with a full day of live music, food, local vendors, and joy. With a focus on genre diversity, the event will highlight sounds ranging from funk and R&B to folk and indie soul.

The festival is intimate by design, with a 75-person capacity and a mission rooted in artist care, accessibility, and authentic connection. All proceeds will go directly to artist compensation and supporting the local creative ecosystem.

“IRIS isn't just about music — it's about building space for community,” says organizer Taylor Kelly. “This festival is for Philly, by Philly.”

The BYOB festival will feature:

7 Philly-based music acts, including Rachel Andie, Jacqueline Constance, DJ Jamz and more
Local vendors offering food, N/A drinks, and handmade goods

A community raffle with prizes donated by local businesses (all proceeds go to local charity organizations Vamos Juntos and Mazzoni Center)

A vibrant crowd of queer, BIPOC, and creative attendees

The IRIS team is still accepting donations and sponsorships to help fund artist pay, sound equipment, and community-access tickets. Those interested in supporting or partnering can

The poster is a vibrant, hand-drawn illustration of a butterfly with a yellow body and blue wings. The wings are decorated with various text and graphics. At the top, the word "IRIS" is written in large, bold, blue letters, with "music" and "festival" in smaller blue letters on either side. Below "IRIS", the words "Philly" and "PA" are written in small blue letters. The butterfly's wings are divided into sections. The left wing contains the text "Rachel Andie", "Máty", and "ANGEL CONCEPCION". The right wing contains the text "April Fool Child", "Ari Carter", and "Jacqueline Constance". The center of the butterfly features a pink star with the text "Wonderland FISHTOWN" and "sounds by DJ JAMZ". Above the star, the text "July 19" and "DOORS @2:30" are written in pink. Below the star, the text "hosted by Queen Jo" is written in blue. The words "fun", "inspired", "beautiful", and "joy" are written in blue around the butterfly. At the bottom, the text "OPEN JAM SESSION FEAT. TAYLOR KELLY AND SPECIAL GUESTS" is written in blue. The background is a solid yellow color.
