

Joe Bonamassa's Sound Wave Beach Weekend Sells Out During Pre-Sale

All Passes Sold Out for First-Ever Topeka-Hosted Land Event Curated by Bonamassa, set for April 10-12, 2026

MIRAMAR BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, July 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Joe Bonamassa's Sound Wave Beach Weekend has officially sold out. The highly anticipated three-day immersive music vacation - set for April 10-12, 2026 in Miramar Beach, FL - marks Bonamassa's first-ever curated land event and will feature two unique performances by the blues-rock icon, exclusive artist collaborations, and a powerhouse lineup of special guests across Blues, Rock, Soul, and Americana.

Fans who would like to join the event can sign up for the wait list HERE and have a chance to book passes if they become available.

Hosted in partnership with experiential live music organization, Topeka, the Beach Weekend promises an unforgettable experience in an idyllic coastal setting. With a full-capacity crowd locked in, attendees will enjoy three nights of performances from an incredible line-up featuring Joe Bonamassa, Gov't Mule, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, JJ Grey & Mofro, Grace Potter, Little Feat, Larkin Poe, Samantha Fish, Joanne Shaw Taylor, and Robert Jon & The Wreck - alongside daily activities, artist interactions, and one-of-a-kind musical moments under the Florida sky.

"To see Joe Bonamassa's Sound Wave Beach Weekend sell out so fast in just the pre-sale, in its very first year is a true testament to the deep bond he has with his extremely passionate fans. This vacation is not just about the music — it's about community, connection, and celebrating artists who continue to inspire with every note. We're honored to help bring that kind of magic to the beach," said Anthony Diaz, COO and Partner of Topeka.

Designed to redefine the live music experience, Topeka artist-curated vacations make it easy for guests to enjoy shows from the comfort of their own reserved, personal “coves,” with walkable beachside accommodations and on-demand delivery of food, beverages, and merchandise in five minutes or less. The 5,500-capacity venue is just steps from white-sand beaches, combining hospitality, connection, and music in a seamless vacation format.

The sell-out caps a stretch of incredible momentum for Bonamassa. His new studio album, Breakthrough, arrives July 18 via J&R Adventures and is already being hailed as one of the most stylistically expansive efforts of his career. The album features 10 original songs, including the title track “Breakthrough,” listen NOW, the introspective “Shake This Ground,” the soulful “Still Walking With Me,” and the gritty new single “Trigger Finger.” Co-written with longtime collaborator Tom Hambridge and produced by Kevin Shirley, the album blends globe-spanning influences with emotionally resonant songwriting and Bonamassa’s signature guitar work.

Bonamassa is currently on the road in Europe and will return stateside later this month to kick off a U.S. summer amphitheater tour with stops at The Greek Theatre in Los Angeles (July 31), Red Rocks Amphitheatre (August 8), and more. In September, he’ll open for The Who in Chicago and headline the Keeping the Blues Alive at Sea Alaska cruise before launching into a full U.S. fall tour.
