

Pre-Orders Opened on July 15 for 'Harry Potter Lord Voldemort' Statue

Prime 1 Studio has announced the "Harry Potter Lord Voldemort" Statue. Pre-orders began July 15, 2025 (JST); release set for January 2027.

ASAKUSA, TAITO-KU, TOKYO, JAPAN, July 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lord Voldemort from the "Harry Potter" film series has joined the Real Elite Masterline statue lineup. The statue captures his imposing presence through a composition that combines a downward-facing gaze, the angle of his neck, and the flowing motion of his robe, creating an impression of arrogance and dominance.

Real Elite Masterline Harry Potter (Film) Lord Voldemort

The head sculpt was developed through close study of actor Ralph Fiennes' facial structure and special makeup, with detailed reproduction of features such as deep-set eye sockets and elongated nasal cavities. His skin is painted in a pale tone, with visible veins rendered beneath the surface. The robe features contrasting light and shadow to suggest magical illumination, while the snake Nagini is finished with a lustrous sheen, enhancing the statue's lifelike quality.

The base is modeled after the Ministry of Magic's fireplaces. Its exterior is adorned with the Dark Mark and multiple Death Eater masks, symbolizing Voldemort's power and influence. On the rear, a relief of Salazar Slytherin has been incorporated—evoking the character's origins.

This bonus version also includes an additional head part featuring Voldemort with his tongue extended.
