

icashflow Expands Operations in Manufactured Home Communities Across Lakeland, FL & Bellflower, CA

icashflow Expands Real Estate Development

LAKELAND, FL, UNITED STATES, July 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- icashflow, a real estate development firm founded by Brian Davison specializing in manufactured home communities, continues its strategic focus on developing properties in Lakeland, Florida and Bellflower, California. The company maintains active operations in both markets as part of its manufactured home community development initiatives.

The firm's presence in these two distinct geographic markets reflects the growing demand for manufactured housing options in both Florida and California. Lakeland, located in Central Florida between Tampa and Orlando, and Bellflower, situated in Los Angeles County, represent key areas for manufactured home community development.

icashflow's development activities encompass the planning, development, and management of manufactured home communities designed to meet housing needs in their respective markets. The company's dual-market approach allows it to serve communities on both the East and West coasts of the United States.

The real estate development firm maintains operations in both locations, with each market presenting unique opportunities for manufactured home community development. The company's focus on these specific geographic areas aligns with regional housing demands and development opportunities.
