"I was very pleased with the service from Northridge Windows & Doors. They did a phenomenal job with the installation. The quality of the windows are exceptional. Everyone that we were in contact with at Northridge Windows & Doors were very friendly and professional. Kudos to the installers they were quick and efficient and cleaned up afterwards. I would highly recommend this company."

"Sokol Bace is very experienced and knowledgeable person. I was impressed on first meeting and gave deposit. Northridge is very good company and customer service is five star. I recommend this company for windows and doors replacement. Installation is also very clean and smooth. I also recommended it to my both neighbours."

"I highly recommend Northridge. After getting 4 quotes to replace 6 windows including a bow window, I decided to go with Northridge for a couple reasons. The initial conversation with Sandy was light where I got all the info I needed and didn't feel overwhelmed with stats and gadgets. The service was amazing - Sandy checking in and providing timely updates and being responsive when I had questions. The cost - Northridge came at par with another company until I received the full quote which included a nice discount that helped make the final decision. At the time of installation, Daniel and Habib were incredible and I couldn't have asked for a better experience. They were both friendly, polite, and meticulous. They went over every little detail and didn't miss a thing. Daniel was so focused on making sure my existing shades fit back even though I knew they might not - he wasn't giving up. They vacuumed and tidied everything before closing off the project. They had a 'customer first' focus, which was very much appreciated. Thank you Sandy, Daniel, and Habib for making this project a seamless experience for me."

"I recently had four windows installed by Northridge Windows & Doors, and I couldn't be happier with the results. From start to finish, the experience was smooth and professional. The new windows have not only improved the look of my home but also its energy efficiency. Work with Yvonne if you can, she has exceptional customer service. She was smart, knowledgeable, and always ready to address any questions I had, making the whole process stress-free." The Northridge Windows & Doors team consistently goes above and beyond to ensure outstanding project results for every client.
