HOLLYWOOD, CA – Love Hibachi, Southern California's premier hibachi catering service, recently took center stage at an exclusive Hollywood celebrity meet-and-greet event celebrating the birthday of renowned Hollywood film producer Jeff Gund. The event not only provided a memorable birthday experience but also gathered an impressive array of Hollywood stars and entertainment industry leaders.

Love Hibachi Catering to HOLLYWOOD

Opening the festivities was legendary actor Ken Foree, best known for his iconic roles in the original "Dawn of the Dead," "Leatherface: Texas Chainsaw Massacre 3," and "Water for Elephants." In his lively introduction, Ken Foree enthusiastically announced, "Jeff, happy birthday to you, my friend. Love Hibachi brings fiery cuisine to Hollywood."

Among the high-profile guests were Larry Kasanoff, producer of the blockbuster "Mortal Kombat" franchise and films like "True Lies," "Beowulf," and "Strange Days"; Walter O'Brien, executive producer of CBS's "Scorpion" and founder of Scorpion Studios; film executive Richard Walters, known for "Whiplash," "Drive," and "Nightcrawler"; acclaimed producer and writer Steven L. Sears ("Xena: Warrior Princess," "Sheena," "The A-Team"); Larry Namer, co-founder of E! Entertainment Television; Eva Bitar from the Los Angeles Mayor's Office of Film & Television Production; and Cindy Lee, Oscar-nominated director for the short film "The Last Ranger."

The event featured Love Hibachi's signature experience, blending gourmet hibachi catering with captivating live culinary performances. Attendees enjoyed delicious, freshly-prepared dishes right off the grill, complemented by vibrant entertainment that has made Love Hibachi a favored choice among Hollywood's elite.

"From the red carpet to sizzling barbecues, Love Hibachi has been Hollywood's go-to for private events, premieres, and exclusive celebrations," stated Ken Foree during his remarks. The successful event underscores Love Hibachi's growing reputation as an industry leader in providing unique catering experiences tailored for upscale events.
