Why Proficient PR's Korean Distribution Stands Out:

□ Written in Native Korean by PR Experts – Every press release is crafted or translated by professional Korean copywriters and editors, ensuring natural tone, cultural relevance, and SEO optimization for local search engines like Naver and Daum.

□ Published in Real Korean Media – Proficient PR collaborates with established Korean publications, including mainstream news sites, tech portals, crypto outlets, and regional dailies. This guarantees placement in media platforms that real Korean readers trust and engage with—not low-tier directories or non-relevant international sites.
