GoldenCrest Metals: A Rising Star Leads the Industry

Despite being a newer player, GoldenCrest Metals has quickly emerged as a standout leader by doing what many others fail to do—putting transparency, integrity, and competitive pricing front and center.

Founded in 2023 by CEO Rich Jacoby, the company has drawn widespread attention for its boutique, customer-first approach.

Unlike larger, impersonal firms, it's not unusual for GoldenCrest to offer direct access to its executive team, often including Jacoby himself.

That level of service, combined with competitive pricing and a reputation for honest sales practices, helped earn GoldenCrest the #1 spot for “Integrity & Trust” on the 2025 list.

“In a space that’s been plagued by hidden markups and aggressive sales tactics, GoldenCrest is a breath of fresh air,” said Stina Pettersson, Senior Editor at How to Invest Gold. “They’ve built trust quickly by doing business the right way—transparent pricing, real customer reviews, and a low-pressure, educational approach.”

GoldenCrest customers also benefit from a generous set of perks, including:

- * Up to $25,000 in free silver for qualifying accounts
- * Up to 5 years of free storage on eligible IRA rollovers
- * Low $10,000 IRA purchase minimum
- * A free wealth management guide and educational resources

Backed by trusted conservative voices such as Michael Savage and Kevin Harrington, the company has earned 5-star customer reviews with the Better Business Bureau and customer review platforms like Trustpilot and Google. GoldenCrest has raised the bar in a notoriously opaque industry.

Why Gold IRAs Are Gaining Momentum

The updated rankings arrive at a pivotal time. With economic indicators pointing toward continued inflation, potential rate cuts, and ongoing geopolitical uncertainty, many Americans are turning to physical gold as a hedge against market instability.

Unlike traditional IRAs that hold stocks and bonds, gold IRAs are self-directed retirement accounts that hold physical precious metals—offering tangible value, diversification, and long-term protection.

According to the guide from HowToInvestGold.com, the top reasons people are rolling over retirement funds into gold include:

- * Hedging against a weakening U.S. dollar and inflation
- * Diversifying away from stock-heavy portfolios
- * Reducing exposure to geopolitical and economic risk
- * Owning a hard asset that holds intrinsic value

As the 2025 economy continues to shift, the right gold IRA company can make all the difference in how your retirement assets are preserved and grown. Whether you're a retiree, investor, or financial advisor, the newly released HowToInvestGold.com rankings offer a vetted roadmap to help you make an informed decision.
