

Mangrove Property Insurance CEO Steve Weinstein to Speak at Florida Insurance Council Summer Symposium

Panel to Discuss the Critical Partnership Between Bermuda, Global Reinsurers and the Florida Insurance Market

ST. PETERSBURG, FL, UNITED STATES, July 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mangrove Property Insurance Company (Mangrove) announced that Stephen Weinstein, its Founder and CEO, will be speaking at the Florida Insurance Council Summer Symposium, being held July 30 – August 1, in Fort Lauderdale, FL.

Weinstein will moderate and participate in the discussion “The Florida-Bermuda Triangle: How Innovation, Effective Regulation, and Long-Term Partnerships Support the World’s Peak Risk Market.”

Insurance and reinsurance executive Stephen Weinstein is founder and CEO of Mangrove Property Insurance.

We’re building Mangrove on a foundation of partnerships, and none are more important to us than our partnerships with global reinsurers, in the Bermuda market and worldwide. ”

Joining the discussion will be:

- George Petropoulos, Deputy Director, Supervision of the Bermuda Monetary Authority, and
- John Huff, President and CEO of the Association of Bermuda Insurers and Reinsurers, and past President of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and Director of the Missouri Department of Insurance.

“We’re building Mangrove on a foundation of partnerships, and none are more important to us than our partnerships with global reinsurers, in the Bermuda market and worldwide. Fit-for-purpose regulatory oversight is also critical to support market functions, consumer protection, and actionable innovation. I'm honored to participate with George and John, market leaders and representatives of this critical stakeholder 'triangle' which ultimately serves Florida's homeowners," Weinstein said.

FIC is the premier advocate for insurer groups and insurance companies when it comes to policy and regulation in the state of Florida. FIC's Summer Symposium is broadly attended by leaders from domestic and national insurers, regulators, reinsurers, and other market participants.
