Why Professional Garage Door Opener Installation Is Worth It garage door repairs Perth

Originally started by Perth local Jamie Dun, the company began as a solo garage door repair service. Today, Garage Door Guys Perth employs multiple technicians, operates on-call service teams seven days a week, and is now offering franchise opportunities for trained professionals across Western Australia.

I started with a van, a toolbox, and a promise to always show up and fix things properly.”

Jamie, Founder of Garage Door Guys Perth

“This expansion marks a milestone not just for our team, but for local tradies looking for a dependable path to business ownership,” said Jamie, founder of Garage Door Guys Perth. “We’ve built our reputation on doing the job right, being fair with customers, and showing up when we say we will.”

With services ranging from emergency garage door repairs and new door installations to opener replacements and preventative maintenance, the company has earned a strong reputation for reliability and professional workmanship. Much of its growth has been driven by word-of-mouth and repeat business from homeowners and small businesses across Perth.

The new franchise model offers fully supported opportunities to local technicians looking to run their own garage door business under the Garage Door Guys Perth brand. Franchisees receive training, marketing support, and access to the company's trusted supplier network.

Jamie attributes the company's success to a strong commitment to honest service and practical solutions. "Garage door repair isn't glamorous," he said, "but it's essential. We're proud to support local families and businesses every single day."

The company continues to operate its emergency hotline 24/7 and is currently accepting franchise inquiries from interested parties across WA.
