

Rellevate Partners with Catholic Relief Services to Enhance Aid Disbursement Globally

Rellevate and Catholic Relief Services partner to enhance secure, efficient global aid disbursement, leveraging innovative fintech for vulnerable populations.

STAMFORD, CT, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rellevate, a fintech empowering consumers with innovative services for flexible money access, has been selected through a competitive solicitation by Catholic Relief Services to provide reloadable or non-reloadable prepaid card services, including virtual card services, to CRS Country Programs, Program Offices, and Outreach Countries. This strategic partnership will enable CRS to disburse funds to vulnerable populations worldwide more efficiently and securely, ensuring timely access to critical aid.

"We are incredibly proud and honored to partner with Catholic Relief Services (CRS), an organization renowned globally for its tireless efforts in humanitarian aid and sustainable development," said Stewart A. Stockdale, Rellevate Co-Founder, Chairman, and CEO. "This collaboration underscores Rellevate's commitment to leveraging our innovative financial technology for social good. Our prepaid and virtual card solutions will provide CRS with flexible, secure, and rapid disbursement capabilities, crucial for delivering aid effectively in diverse and often challenging environments. We look forward to supporting CRS in their vital mission to assist the poor and vulnerable across the globe."

Alan Grundy, the Cash Lead for the Humanitarian Response Department at Catholic Relief Services, added, "As crises and levels of need continue to grow globally, CRS is scaling its geographic reach and strengthening its readiness to rapidly deliver cash assistance. Through our partnership with Rellevate, we are enhancing our capacity to respond quickly and effectively, ensuring we reach the most vulnerable populations across diverse and challenging contexts worldwide."
