Angela’s early endorsements span every corner of Delray Beach and beyond, including:

- Palm Beach County Commissioner Bobby Powell, Jr.

- State Senator Lori Berman
- State Senator Mack Bernard
- State Representative Joe Casello
- State Representative Debra Tendrich
- Former Delray Beach City Commissioner David Randolph
- Former School Board Member Dr. Debra L. Robinson
- Service Employees International Union (SEIU)

- Palm Beach County Human Rights Council (PBCHRC)

Elected in March 2023, Angela Burns is a lifelong Delray Beach resident and proud member of the historic Newman family, with roots in the city dating back to 1908. A retired public-school teacher of 34 years—many of which were spent at Village Academy—Burns has long been a trusted advocate for families, small businesses, and community progress. Her service has included leadership roles on the School Advisory Council, Affordable Housing Board, Library Board, and Education Advisory Board.

Now serving as Deputy Vice Mayor, Angela remains focused on preserving Delray Beach's unique character, expanding opportunities for residents, and ensuring every neighborhood has a voice at City Hall.
