ServiceMaster Restoration By Simons Releases Ultimate Guide to Aging-in-Place Home Improvements

ServiceMaster Restoration By Simons, a leading disaster restoration firm serving Chicagoland, has announced the release of its latest resource: The Ultimate Guide to Aging-in-Place Home Improvements: 10 Essential Upgrades + Expert Tips from Sam Simon.

This comprehensive guide is designed to help families nationwide make their homes safer and more comfortable for aging parents. With nearly 77% of adults over 50 wanting to age in place, according to AARP, the need for accessible and practical home upgrades has never been greater.

"Helping families protect what matters most has been our mission for over 40 years," said Sam Simon, owner of ServiceMaster Restoration By Simons and IICRC Master Fire & Water Restorer. "This guide brings together expert advice, real-life solutions, and financial resources so families can plan with confidence."

Highlights of the guide include:

10 essential aging-in-place home upgrades, such as walk-in bathtubs, smart home devices, lever-style door handles, and medical alert systems

Financing tips, including veteran grants, state programs, and nonprofit assistance
