

Native Americans & Italian Americans to Hold Next 'Solidarity Session – Bridging Cultures Against Cancel Culture'

Guest speaker to be featured at next Solidarity Session 7/22/25 8 PM EDT

NORTHVALE, NJ, UNITED STATES, July 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Italian American One Voice Coalition ("IAOVC"), and The Native American Guardian's Association ("NAGA"), announce the next collaborative session bringing Native American, Italian American and other communities together to oppose the pervasive threat of cancel culture. These "Solidarity Sessions – Bridging Cultures Against Cancel Culture" foster understanding, promote dialogue and build solidarity among diverse groups facing challenges from cultural erasure and historical revisionism.

Starting last March, these monthly Sessions have forged a milestone alliance among NAGA, Italian American organizations and other groups. Each virtual Session includes discussions of challenges being addressed to counter cancel culture and features a guest speaker. This month's guest speaker is Kerry J. Byrne, former NFL analyst (SI.com, NFL Films) and major-media news reporter (NY Post, Fox News) who has focused on US history, American culture and media bias. He has consistently opposed and exposed the intellectual fraud behind racist cancel-culture and its war on Christopher Columbus and Native American imagery. His recent reporting, in conjunction with NAGA, is a major reason why a movement is afoot to un-cancel the Washington Redskins.

NAGA & IAOVC Solidarity Sessions - Bridging Cultures Against Cancel Culture

Don't let Cancel Culture divide us!

Byrne will discuss the reasons why cancel culture has attacked Columbian and Indian imagery so aggressively and why it poses an existential threat to the US itself. Italian and Native Americans must join together in common cause to defend their individual cultural heritage, Byrne argues, for the stability and future of the USA.

Cancel culture has increasingly become a concerning phenomenon in today's society. It often overlooks the complexities of history and cultural context, leading to silencing of voices and erasure of important narratives.

Native American and Italian American communities share a common experience of marginalization and misrepresentation. Both have faced historical injustices and stereotypes that continue to impact their communities today. By joining forces, they aim to confront the harmful effects of cancel culture and reclaim their narratives.

Andre' DiMino, IAOVC President commented, "We look forward to our next Solidarity Session and Our guest speaker Kerry Byrne's presentation, which I know will be very enlightening. These Sessions are an excellent opportunity to gain greater understanding of our cultures and the challenges we all face with cancel culture. We hope to see many other groups join the next Solidarity Session to continue our progress as we strive for unity, and not division." The next Solidarity Session will take place via Zoom on Tuesday, July 22, 2025 at 8 PM EDT.

Participation is free but registration is required to join the Solidarity Session. Click the link on www.thesolidaritysessions.com to register.

About NAGA

The Native Americans Guardian's Association is an IRS-Registered 501(c)3 non-profit advocating for increased education about Native Americans, especially in public educational institutions, and greater recognition of Native American Heritage through the high-profile venues of sports and other public platforms. "Educate not eradicate." To learn more about NAGA visit nagaeducation.org. To join NAGA's new alliance of organizations and individuals working together to oppose cancel culture "Seven Generations Alliance" visit www.nagaeducation.org/general-9-1

About IAOVC

IAOVC is a nationwide coalition of Italian American organizations and individual members whose sole purpose is to defend Italian American heritage and culture. In its 33-year history IAOVC has fought back and defeated repeated attempts to cancel Columbus Day and/or remove Columbus statues around the nation. IAOVC is an IRS-Registered 501(c)3 non-profit. To support IAOVC's efforts at defending and educating about Columbus and Italian American civil rights visit iaovc.org/donate. IAOVC membership is open to individuals and all Italian American organizations to join together as a coalition defending and celebrating Italian American heritage and culture. To join visit iaovc.org/membership.

IAOVC issues a regular free email newsletter, "The Alfano Digest.". The Digest issues alerts on instances of bias, stereotyping, discrimination, and defamation. It also contains informative Italian American cultural, educational and heritage information. To request the Alfano Digest at no charge, fill out the form on iaovc.org.

Andre DiMino

Italian American ONE VOICE Coalition

andre@iaovc.org

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

YouTube

X

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/830729157>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.