

Cordisco & Saile Expands Into Philadelphia Community with New Fishtown Office

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, July 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Cordisco & Saile Injury Law, one of the strongest-reviewed personal injury law firms in Eastern Pennsylvania, is proud to announce the opening of its newest office at 2424 E York St, located on the northern edge of the Fishtown neighborhood in North Philadelphia. This expansion represents another step in the firm's ongoing mission to make top-tier legal services more accessible to injury victims throughout the region.

Cordisco & Saile attorneys gathers to discuss a recent case.

The Fishtown office is an opportunity to bring Cordisco & Saile closer to the communities it serves, offering a convenient location for those in North Philadelphia and surrounding neighborhoods.

We want to educate and empower the community, offering real support and guidance to help them understand their rights and get compensated fairly.”

"Opening our Philadelphia office is about more than just expanding our footprint," said Michael Saile, Jr., Managing Partner at Cordisco & Saile. "It's about reaching more people, especially those who may not know where to turn after an injury. We want to educate and empower the community, offering real support and guidance to help them understand their rights and get compensated fairly."

For over a decade, Cordisco & Saile has built its reputation on results, compassion, and unwavering client advocacy. While the firm's roots remain firmly planted in Bucks County, it has steadily expanded its presence across Eastern Pennsylvania, including a growing role in the Lehigh Valley. This newest office marks a pivotal moment as Cordisco & Saile transitions into a regional firm that remains deeply connected to the local values and communities that shaped its identity.

With this new location, the firm continues its investment in hiring the region's best legal talent to ensure every client receives skilled representation and personalized service. Cordisco & Saile is widely recognized for delivering strong results in complex injury cases and is consistently ranked among the most trusted personal injury firms in the area.

Whether someone has suffered a car accident, general injury, or is the victim of abuse, the team at Cordisco & Saile is ready to help, now with greater convenience and reach.
