Kowloon

Celebrating 75 Years

The Kowloon Restaurant, located at 984 Broadway, Saugus, MA, is a family-owned dining and entertainment landmark founded in 1950 by William and Madeline Wong. It is America's largest Chinese restaurant, rooted in the richness of Asian cuisine and culture, offering high-quality service and acclaimed Asian fare. Specialties include the famous Saugus Wings, hand-rolled sushi, Kowloon Pu Pu Platters, Scorpion Bowls, and Mai Tais. Throughout the decades, Kowloon has become a part of Greater Boston's cultural fabric and loved by locals, celebrities and sports stars – including John Cena, Barbara Walters, Bobby Orr, Jerry Seinfeld, Dwayne Johnson, (The Rock), Donnie Wahlberg, the World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE) Superstars, Anne Hathaway, Fabian, The Sopranos, James Gandolfini, Forest Whitaker, the Boston Bruins and Celtics. The restaurant is well-known for hosting weddings, sports events, concerts, and private parties of every kind. They are open for business seven days per week and have Kowloon Food Trucks available for parties and events. The Kowloon gift shop showcases collectible drinkware, T-shirts, sweatshirts, and memorabilia items that are collected by guests from around the world. The Wong Family continues to strive for excellence in food and service as they celebrate their 75th anniversary in 2025.
