

Next-Gen Aesthetic Innovation Arrives at Javan Wellness with the Candela Matrix®

Javan Wellness is excited to announce the addition of the Candela Matrix®, a state-of-the-art laser system, to their practice.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, July 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Javan Wellness is proud to introduce the Candela Matrix®, a revolutionary RF microneedling system now available at all locations. This next-generation technology sets a new gold standard for non-surgical skin rejuvenation, offering dramatic improvements in skin texture, tone, and firmness — with minimal downtime.

With the addition of Matrix®, Javan Wellness continues its commitment to offering advanced, clinically proven treatments that deliver measurable, long-lasting results.

What Is Matrix®?

At Javan Wellness, we are committed to offering cutting-edge treatments that deliver real, measurable results. That's why we've added the Matrix® system by Candela, a next-generation RF microneedling platform engineered to correct, maintain, and restore skin health at every stage of aging.

Powered by Dimensional RF™ technology, the Matrix system allows for precise treatment at up to three depths in a single insertion, creating exceptional outcomes in skin resurfacing, wrinkle reduction, and collagen stimulation. Real-time impedance monitoring and Depth Intelligence™ technology ensure consistency, customization, and optimal energy delivery throughout every treatment.

The Matrix Pro® applicator features the thinnest microneedles on the market and delivers short-pulse RF energy to stimulate new collagen, smooth wrinkles, and refine overall texture. Its customizable depth and energy settings allow for tailored results based on individual skin needs.

The Sublime® applicator is a non-invasive solution that uses infrared and bipolar RF to heat the dermis, tighten collagen fibers, and visibly improve skin firmness, all without downtime.

The Sublative™ RF applicator delivers bipolar RF energy through multi-electrode pins to resurface the skin and stimulate collagen, producing smoother, more even results without the need for needles.

Matrix® at Javan Wellness is designed for clients seeking high-performance, non-surgical solutions to address concerns like wrinkles, scarring, skin laxity, and uneven tone or texture. It delivers fast, consistent results with minimal recovery time, offering a refined and intelligent approach to skin rejuvenation.

"The Matrix Pro is by far my favorite radio frequency device on the market." Says Breana Hobbs, Master Aesthetician at Javan Wellness. "It's important to offer treatments that are safe for all skin colors but also deliver results. What sets Matrix apart is its advanced technology and precision. I love being able to customize settings and target three layers of the skin in a single pulse. It's incredibly effective as a stand-alone treatment, but I also love stacking it with other modalities to amplify results."
