ABOUT: The Festival attracts an estimated 6,000 to 8,000 people each year. In 2024, visitors from 12 states and from 127 cities attended the Festival. The August 2025 event is the 25th Anniversary. "In celebrating our 25th anniversary, our goal was to present a musical lineup of GRAMMY-winning jazz, gospel and blues icons, nationally recognized bands, young talent, and stellar Northwest musicians," says Dr. Maria Manzo, Festival Director. "For 25 years, the Vancouver Wine & Jazz Festival has been a cultural event where you can immerse yourself in great jazz, fine art, wine, food, community, and friendship in the beautiful Pacific Northwest summer" she added. The Festival has been recognized for its 25 years of excellence with recent grants and awards. The Festival was awarded Southwest Washington '2023 Event of the Year' by the Washington Festivals and Events Association and received a 2024 grant from the Paul G. Allen ArtsFund Foundation. "It is gratifying to see the Festival recognized as an important jazz and cultural arts event in the Pacific Northwest," Dr. Manzo concluded.

FINE ART: The Festival features professional fine artists who display and sell their art. Twenty artists from Washington, Oregon, and California will be presenting their art, which includes watercolor, acrylic, and oil painting, textiles, sculpture, photography, pottery, mixed media, and jewelry. Prices range from $50 to $250 for prints, pottery, and custom jewelry, and up to $5,000 for original paintings.

WINE, BEER, & WHISKEY: Attendees can sample and enjoy more than 70 Northwest wines, including varietals from Wahluke Slope, Columbia Valley, and Walla Walla regions. Maryhill Winery is the official Festival Wine Sponsor. Attendees can sample wine in 1-ounce tastes or purchase a 5-ounce glass. Northwest Craft beers are on tap including Loowit Hazy IPA, barrel Mountain Brewery, and others. Bull Run Whiskey, locally crafted in Portland, Oregon, is the Official Festival Whiskey.

FOOD & EXHIBITORS: Five caterers from Seattle, Portland, and Vancouver provide a lovely variety of cuisine, including Northwest crab cakes & seafood, Greek gyros, Turkish cuisine, southern BBQ, charcuterie, desserts, and more. Commercial exhibitors are also at the Festival, including Vancouver Toyota and RV, Coins and Auctions Since 1994, Cutco Cutlery, Renewal by Andersen, Miller Homes, and others.

SEATING: The Festival is outdoor, general admission grass seating. Attendees can bring a blanket, lawn chair, or sand chair. Kids age 12 and younger are free with a paid adult.
