With a strong background in will contests, trust disputes, fiduciary litigation, estate and trust administration, and guardianship matters, Ms. Bezanilla is uniquely positioned to provide comprehensive legal solutions for clients facing complex probate and estate issues.

Her appointment underscores South Florida Law, PLLC's ongoing commitment to providing high-quality, accessible legal representation in probate and estate planning matters across South Florida.

“We are thrilled to welcome Niuris to our team,” said Burton Landau, Founding Partner at South Florida Law,

PLLC. “Her experience as a Florida probate attorney and her dedication to client advocacy will be valuable assets to our firm and, most importantly, to our clients.”

Extensive Experience in Probate and Estate Law

Ms. Bezanilla began her legal career as a judicial intern with the Honorable Maria Korvick of the 11th Judicial Circuit's Probate Division. There, she gained invaluable insight into the probate process from the court's perspective, assisting Judge Korvick with a variety of probate and guardianship matters. This experience provided her with a unique understanding of the intricacies of Florida probate law and the challenges families often face during the administration of estates.

Her practice now focuses on guiding clients through every stage of probate administration, from initial filings to complex litigation involving will and trust disputes. Ms. Bezanilla's approach combines strategic legal analysis with compassionate client service, ensuring that each client's interests are protected during what can often be a difficult and emotional time.

Academic Excellence and Leadership

Ms. Bezanilla earned her Juris Doctor from Florida International University College of Law, where she distinguished herself as President of the Negotiation & Mediation Team and as an active member of the Moot Court Board. Her academic achievements include recognition on the Dean's List, as well as the Pro Bono Award and the Advocate Award for her outstanding mediation and negotiation skills.

Her leadership in law school reflects her ongoing commitment to professional development and client advocacy, qualities that she brings to her role as a Florida probate attorney at South Florida Law, PLLC.

Dedicated to Serving the South Florida Community

Fluent in both English and Spanish, Ms. Bezanilla is passionate about expanding access to high-quality legal representation for all members of the South Florida community. She is committed to helping clients navigate the complexities of probate and estate planning, ensuring that the wishes of the deceased are respected and their loved ones are protected.

"I am honored to join South Florida Law, PLLC and to serve as a resource for families and individuals facing probate and estate planning challenges," said Ms. Bezanilla. "My goal is to provide clear guidance, effective advocacy, and peace of mind to every client."
