

Callaway in Concert: Tony Nominee's Show is Pure Broadway Magic

LTV Studios welcomes Liz Callaway in an intimate concert blending Broadway brilliance and movie magic

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tony and Grammy-nominated, Emmy-winning Broadway legend Liz Callaway is headed to East Hampton for one unforgettable evening of music, storytelling, and show-stopping vocals as part of the Hamptons Summer Songbook series at LTV Studios.

On Saturday, July 19 at 7:30 PM, Callaway takes the stage with her signature concert "Broadway & Beyond"—a dazzling journey through one of the most iconic careers in American musical theater. With her unmistakable voice and warm stage presence, Callaway brings to life the songs that have shaped her legacy—from Broadway stages to animated classics and beyond.

Often referred to as "the voice of a generation," Liz Callaway's show weaves together highlights from her extraordinary career. Audiences can expect soaring performances from the Broadway productions she helped define, including her Tony-nominated turn in Baby and her unforgettable run as Grizabella in Cats, where she belted the classic “Memory”. Also featured are selections from her deep collaborations with Stephen Sondheim, one of Broadway’s most revered composers.

But Broadway & Beyond is just that—beyond Broadway. The concert includes fan favorites from Callaway’s award-winning work in film, including the Oscar-nominated “Journey to the Past” from Anastasia, which has become one of her signature songs. Callaway also draws from her acclaimed recording career, blending Broadway ballads with cinematic gems and a few surprises.

Critics agree: Callaway is not just a performer, but a once-in-a-generation talent. As the Portland Press Herald raved, “Liz Callaway brought her very full, yet sensitive, singing voice, a charming stage manner and a first-rate accompanist for a transfixing evening of song.” BroadwayWorld put it simply: “Icon status well-earned and rightly deserved... Liz Callaway is The Best.”

LTV Studios’ Hamptons Summer Songbook series continues its season of exceptional musical storytelling with this not-to-be-missed performance. Produced by LTV Creative Director Josh Gladstone and independent producer Donna Rubin, the series has become one of the East End’s most talked-about cultural highlights of the summer, blending Broadway caliber talent with the intimacy and charm of a Hamptons night out.
