

Arsenal Credit Union Awards over $8,800 to students for good grades

Arsenal has invested over $30,000 into its youth members so far this year!

ST. LOUIS, MO, UNITED STATES, July 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Over 250 local K-12 students were awarded a combined $8,800 for their good grades as part of Arsenal Credit Union's Academic All Stars Program. Arsenal paid students $4 for every A on their report card, which was an increase over the initial amount of $1 an A. Also, this year the program was extended to students in grades 9-12 to ensure students of all ages were acknowledged for their academic achievements.

This year, the maximum amount of money a student could earn for their grades was $50. Of the students who submitted, 66 received this amount.

"This year's Academic All Stars Program saw record-breaking participation with more report cards submitted than in any of the program's 17 years. It's incredibly inspiring to see so many hardworking students recognized for their academic achievements. We're proud to support a generation that's so committed to their education," said Jenny Remes, Marketing Manager at Arsenal Credit Union.

Arsenal has invested over $30,000 into its youth members so far this year through various programs such as scholarships for high school seniors, Cash for Grades and giving bonuses to new kids club members. No matter the age, Arsenal invests in you.
